This transaction will have no impact on our business performance for the current fiscal year. We are currently examining the impact of the transaction on our business performance for the next fiscal year, and will promptly announce any matters that should be disclosed.

9. Matters Related to Transactions with Controlling Shareholders

(1) Applicability of Transactions with Controlling Shareholders, etc. and Compliance with Guidelines Concerning Minority Shareholders Protection Policy

As of January 6, 2025, GMO-IG holds 2.78% of the Company's voting rights indirectly through GMO-IG's subsidiary GMO Ad Holdings, Inc. and 94.68% directly, making this transaction a transaction with a controlling shareholder. Therefore, this transaction falls under the category of a transaction with a controlling shareholder.

In the "Guidelines Concerning Minority Shareholders Protection Policy in Transactions with Controlling Shareholder" presented in the Corporate Governance Report disclosed by the Company on January 9, 2025 The "Guidelines Concerning Measures to Protect Minority Shareholders in the Transaction with the Controlling Shareholder, etc., in the Event of a Transaction, etc., with the Controlling Shareholder" stipulates that "In the event of a transaction that may cause a conflict of interest between the controlling shareholder and minority shareholders, a special committee consisting mainly of audit committee members who are also independent outside directors shall be formed each time a transaction occurs to ensure a system to make decisions from an independent and objective standpoint. The Company stipulates that.

With respect to the Transaction, the Company has taken the measures described in "(2) Measures to Ensure Fairness and to Avoid Conflicts of Interest" below, and therefore, the Company believes that the Transaction complies with the above guidelines.

- (2) Matters Concerning Measures to Ensure Fairness and to Avoid Conflicts of Interest
 - 1 Obtaining a share valuation report from an independent third-party appraiser for the Company

In order to ensure the fairness and appropriateness of the acquisition price of the shares in the Transaction, when determining the acquisition price, the Company retained KPMG FAS Co. ("KPMG"), a financial advisor and third-party appraiser independent of the Company and GMO-IG K.K. ("KPMG"), to calculate the equity value of the Shares (excluding Z.com Lao, Z.com Mongolia, Z.com Philippines and Z com Holdings (Thailand), which the Company has determined to be of limited significance in the Transaction (the "Companies Subject to KPMG Calculation"). The Company requested KPMG to calculate the equity value of Z.com's shares (the "KPMG Valuation Report") and obtained the KPMG Valuation Report (the "KPMG Valuation Report") as of March 19, 2025. The Company requested KPMG to calculate the share value of the Company's shares (the "Share Valuation Report") on March 19, 2025.

KPMG is not a related party of the Company or GMO-IG, and does not have any material interest in this transaction that should be noted.

2 Establishment of an independent special committee at the Company and obtaining a written report from the special committee

Prior to deliberating and resolving on the merits of the Transaction, the Company's Board of Directors will carefully consider the decision-making process of the Transaction, eliminate the possibility of arbitrariness and conflicts of interest in the decision-making process of the Board of Directors, and ensure the fairness of the decision, and confirm that the decision to conduct the Transaction by the Board of Directors is not detrimental to the minority shareholders of the Company. In addition, a special committee consisting of three members, Ms. Miyuki Iwahama, Mr. Tomofumi Sugino, and Mr. Takuya Ayukawa, who are outside directors and audit committee members of the Company and have no vested interest in GMO-IG Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the "Special Committee"), was established for the purpose of ensuring that the decision to conduct the Transaction by the Board of Directors is not detrimental to minority shareholders of the Company.) The Special Committee was established on January 6, 2025 (the "Advisory Matters") to determine (a) the reasonableness of the purpose of the Transaction, (b) the appropriateness of the consideration for the Transaction and other transaction terms, (c) the fairness of the procedures for the Transaction, and (d) whether the decision by the Board of Directors regarding the Transaction is deemed not disadvantageous to the Company's minority shareholders. (hereinafter referred to as the "Consulted Matters"). The Board of Directors of the Company has consulted with the Company on the following matters.

From February 18, 2025 to March 18, 2025, the Special Committee met a total of five times, gathered information, held discussions from time to time as necessary, and otherwise carefully considered the matters discussed in this consultation. Based on such consideration, the Special Committee submitted a written report to the Company's Board of Directors on March 19, 2025, to the effect that the Transaction would not cause any disadvantage to the Company's minority shareholders. A summary of the said report is as follows.

I. Contents of the Report

- (a) We believe that the purpose of this transaction is reasonable.
- (b) We believe that the consideration and other terms of the Transaction are fair and reasonable.
- (c) We believe that the procedures for this transaction are fair.
- (d) We believe that the decision by our Board of Directors regarding the Transaction is not disadvantageous to our minority shareholders.

II. Reasons for the Report

(a) Reasonableness of the Transaction

According to the Company's explanations and explanatory materials regarding the Transaction and the draft of the Agreement on Transfer of Shares, etc. in relation to the Transaction, the purpose of the Transaction is roughly as follows

- GMO Internet Group is integrating its overseas services into the "Z.com" brand with a view to further global expansion in the future. By making these 11 overseas subsidiaries subsidiaries, which are the core companies of the overseas "Z.com" business and mainly belong to the GMO Internet Group's Internet infrastructure business, subsidiaries of the Company, it will be possible to acquire a global customer base, and by incorporating them into the Internet infrastructure business operated by the Company, it will lead to further business expansion not limited to the Japanese market.
- In order to maximize the sustainable growth and corporate value of the Company and GMO-IG Inc. and to realize the GMO Internet Group, to which the Company belongs, as a "corporate group that will grow over the next 100 years," on January 1, 2025, the Company, through an absorption-type company split between GMO-IG Inc. and the Internet The Company succeeded to the Internet infrastructure business (domain business, cloud rental server (hosting) business, and Internet access business) and Internet advertising and media business. Where the subject businesses include members of the Z. com Business Promotion Office, which oversees the overseas Z. com business, this transaction is expected to result in more efficient management of the overseas Z. com business, and will enable the Company, which bears the management costs of the overseas Z. com business, to incorporate the profits of the overseas Z.com business into its consolidated financial statements.

• In order to maintain its listing on the prime market, the Company needs to make efforts to improve its tradable share ratio to achieve a ratio of 35% by the end of December 2026. The Company's business structure should be more easily understood and evaluated by investors through the Transaction, which will contribute to such efforts to improve the tradable share ratio.

Based on the above, after careful deliberation and consideration by the Committee, the Committee has no particular discomfort with the Company's explanation of the purpose of the Transaction and the results of its examination, and the Transaction is deemed to contribute to the enhancement of the Company's corporate value and shareholder value. Therefore, we believe that the purpose of the Transaction is reasonable.

- (b) Reasonableness of consideration and other terms and conditions of the transaction
 - 7 Reasonableness of consideration
 - (i) there is nothing particularly unreasonable in the business plan prepared by the Target Company and the amendments made by KPMG and the Company, which are the basis for the share value calculations of the Shares, and the acquisition price of each of the Shares is reasonable in light of the calculation results adopted by each company; and (ii) since there is nothing particularly unreasonable in the analysis of the collectability of the Receivables and the method of reflecting the collectability of the Receivables in the value calculations by the Company, and since the acquisition price of the Receivables is also reasonable, and (iii) since the consideration for the (ii) There is nothing particularly unreasonable in the analysis of the collectability of the Receivables and the method of reflecting the collectability of the Receivables, which is the premise for the calculation of the value of the Receivables, and since the acquisition price of the Receivables is also reasonable. the consideration for the Transaction (the "Transaction Consideration") is fair and reasonable. Therefore, the consideration for the Transaction (the "Transaction Consideration") is reasonable.
 - Reasonableness of other terms and conditions of the transaction The Share Transfer Agreement stipulates to a certain extent the preconditions for the Company's performance of its obligations, GMO-IG's representations and warranties, covenants, indemnity liability, and other matters generally agreed to in similar transactions from the perspective of protecting the interests of the buyer, and there are no particular provisions that are excessively favorable to the seller. As described above, there is nothing particularly unreasonable in the transaction terms other than the Transaction Consideration.
- (c) Fairness of the procedure
 - Establishment of an independent Committee
 The Company's Board of Directors established the Committee, which consists of three Directors, Mr. Iwahama, Mr. Sugino, and Mr. Ayukawa, who are outside directors (Audit Committee members) of the Company and independent directors as defined in Rule 436-2 of the Securities Listing Regulations of the Tokyo Stock Exchange, and who are recognized as independent from GMO-IG Inc. and the Transaction, The Company's Board of Directors has consulted the Committee on this matter. The Company's Board of Directors decided to make a decision on the Transaction, respecting the judgment of the Committee to the maximum extent possible.

- √ Obtaining a valuation report from our independent financial advisor and third-party appraiser
 - The Company received advice from KPMG, the Company's financial advisor and third-party calculation agent independent of the Company and GMO-IG Corporation, which was approved by the Committee, from a financial perspective, including advice on the valuation of the KPMG Calculation Subject Company in the Shares, the negotiation policy between GMO-IG Corporation and Ltd. and obtained the Valuation Report as of March 19, 2025. Although neither the Company nor the Committee has obtained a fairness opinion from an independent third-party valuation firm for the Transaction, the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry's "Guidelines on Fair M&A Practices" dated June 28, 2019, which covers MBOs and acquisitions of dependent companies by controlling shareholders, states that a fairness The fairness of the procedures is not impaired by this because obtaining a fairness opinion is not mandatory, the Transaction Consideration is considered reasonable as described in (b) (a) above, and other sufficient measures to ensure fairness have been taken in the Transaction. The independence of KPMG is not denied in relation to the Transaction as well, since the remuneration is determined by a fixed amount and contingent fee is not adopted.
- Obtaining advice from independent legal advisors in our company The Company received legal advice from Mori Hamada & Matsumoto ("MH"), a legal advisor to the Company independent of the Company and GMO-IG, which was approved by the Committee, including advice on measures to be taken to ensure the fairness of the procedures in the Transaction, various procedures of the Transaction, and the Company's decision-making method and process with respect to the Transaction. The compensation to MH is expected to be an amount calculated based on a certain hourly rate multiplied by the number of hours worked on the Transaction, with the contingency fee to be determined by multiplying the hourly rate by the number of hours worked on the Transaction. Since it is planned that MH will be compensated on a contingent fee basis and contingent fees are not adopted, MH's independence is not denied in relation to the Transaction.
- In the consideration and negotiation of the Transaction of the seven (7) directors of the Company, four (4) directors, excluding Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member Iwahama, Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member Sugino, and Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member Ayukawa, have no special interest in the Transaction or are at risk thereof, and therefore, in order to avoid any conflict of interest, have not participated in any deliberation or resolution regarding the Transaction at the Company's Board of Directors meeting, In addition, they were not involved in the discussions and negotiations regarding the Transaction on behalf of the Company (however, it is possible that the four Directors, excluding Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member Iwahama, Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member Sugino, and Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member Ayukawa, who did not participate in such resolution, do not have a special interest as defined in the Companies Act, and in such case, the quorum for such resolution may not be met). Therefore, in order to ensure that the quorum of the Board of Directors is met, a new resolution was passed by four directors including Director Hashiguchi (however, with respect to the determination of the amount of compensation for each member of the Special Committee, the resolution was passed by four directors including Director Ito in place of the relevant member). In addition, the Company has also added a director, Mr. Iwahama, to the audit committee. In addition, the four directors, excluding Director Iwahama, Audit & Supervisory Board Member, Director Sugino, and Director Ayukawa, will not participate in the deliberation or resolution of the proposal for the Transaction at the Company's Board of Directors meeting scheduled to be held on March 21, 2025 (provided, however, that Director Iwahama, Audit & Supervisory Board Member, Director Sugino, Director Ayukawa, who did not participate in such resolution, will participate in the resolution). (However, it is possible that the four directors, excluding Mr. Iwahama, Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member, Mr. Sugino, Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member, and Mr. Ayukawa, Director and Audit & Supervisory Board Member, who did not participate in the resolution, may not have any special interest as defined in the Companies Act, and in such case the quorum for the Board of Directors meeting regarding such resolution may not have been met. Therefore, in order to ensure that the resolution is valid and satisfies the quorum required by the Companies Act, the Company plans to adopt a new resolution with four directors (including Director Hashiguchi).

- Appropriate information disclosure
 The Committee was briefed on the contents of the press release regarding the Transaction, and was advised by KPMG and MH to confirm its contents. The said press release will contain matters required under the rules and regulations of the Financial Instruments Exchange, and will also provide full disclosure regarding the contents of the Committee's report and other information.
- 力 In addition to the above, there are no facts that would lead us to infer that the Company was unduly influenced by GMO-IG Corporation in the course of discussions, examinations and negotiations regarding the Transaction, and the Committee believes that the procedures for the Transaction are fair.
- (d) The Transaction is found to have rationality of purpose and appropriateness of terms and conditions, as well as fairness in the procedures involved. Based on these points, the Committee believes that the decision by the Board of Directors of the Company regarding the Transaction is not disadvantageous to the minority shareholders of the Company.

3 Advice from an independent law firm

The Company has appointed Mori Hamada & Matsumoto as its legal advisor for the Transaction and has received legal advice on various procedures, decision making methods and decision—making processes, etc. concerning the Transaction.

Mori Hamada & Matsumoto Foreign Law Joint Enterprise is not a related party of the Company or GMO-IG, Inc. and does not have any material interest in this transaction that should be noted.

4 Establishment of an independent internal review system at the Company

The Company has established a system within the Company to review, negotiate, and make decisions regarding the Transaction (including the scope of the Company's officers and employees involved in reviewing, negotiating, and making decisions regarding the Transaction and their duties) from a standpoint independent of GMO-IG Inc.) has been established within the Company. Specifically, the Company has designated officers and employees who do not concurrently serve as officers or employees of GMO-IG and whose independence from GMO-IG is recognized as such to be involved in the consideration, negotiation, and decision-making regarding the Transaction, and has obtained approval from the Special Committee that there are no problems with this consideration system from an independence standpoint.

- Directors (including members of the Audit and Supervisory Board) who have no vested interest in the Company Approval of all
 - Four of our seven directors, Mr. Tadashi Ito, Mr. Masatoshi Kumagai, Mr. Makoto Hashiguchi and Mr. Masashi Yasuda, are currently serving concurrently as directors or executive officers of GMO-IG. In addition, from the viewpoint of ensuring a quorum at the Board of Directors meeting, four directors including Makoto Hashiguchi, who is considered to have relatively low risk of conflicts of interest among the above four directors, deliberated again and unanimously resolved to execute the Transaction. The four directors, including Makoto Hashiguchi, who is considered to have relatively low risk of conflict of interest, deliberated again and unanimously resolved to conduct the transaction.
- (3) Summary of the opinion obtained from a person who has no interest in the controlling shareholder regarding the fact that the Transaction is not disadvantageous to minority shareholders

Since the Transaction constitutes a significant transaction, etc., with a controlling shareholder, the Company has obtained a written report from the Special Committee, as described above in "(2) Measures to Ensure Fairness and to Avoid Conflicts of Interest" under "(2) Establishment of Independent Special Committee at the Company and Acquisition of Written Report from the Special Committee", from GMO-IG, Inc. and the Company. (Ltd. and GMO-IG Inc., and that the Special Committee has confirmed on March 19, 2025 that (a) the purpose of the Transaction is reasonable, (b) the consideration for the Transaction and other terms of the Transaction are appropriate, (c) the procedures for the Transaction are fair, and (d) the decision by the Board of Directors of the Company regarding the Transaction is not disadvantageous to the minority shareholders of the Company. (c) The fairness of the procedures for the Transaction is recognized in all cases. For a summary of such written report, please refer to "(2) Establishment of an Independent Special Committee and Acquisition of Written Report from the Special Committee" in "(2) Matters Concerning Measures to Ensure Fairness and to Avoid Conflicts of Interest" above.
